Summary: Jake and Cassie poem.

Everyday and Always

There's an endless sorrow,
>Deep inside of me,
A twisting, writhing darkness,
>Growing with every loss of life.
It won't let me go,
>I'm so afraid.
>Bitter, salty waterfalls,
Hitting the ground softly,
>And sinking slowly beneath the Earth,
Never to be seen again.

>
A searing pain that cuts through my heart,
>My essence; my soul.
And shatters into a millions broken pieces,

>Leaving behind an empty shell,
That used to be me.
>
But I think of you,
>The good times we've shared together,
And I know eventually,

>I'll smile again,
Love again,
>Despite this terrible loss of innocence,
That can never be regained.
>
Where am I now?
>I cannot be sure.
But in your arms,
>I find sanctuary; I find strength,
A never ending love.
>And I'll be okay.
Because with you,
>I am whole again,
Everyday and always.
